This mission directive implements policy guidance in AFRD 10-1, Mission Directives, and defines the mission of AFSAC. It does not apply to the Air National Guard or the U.S. Air Force Reserve

SUMMARY OF REVISIONS

This revision eliminates the headquarters international affairs mission performed by AFSAC, and the dual-hatting of AFSAC/CC as the Assistant to the Commander for International Affairs (HQ AFMC/IA). The revision reflects minor wording changes.

1. Mission. AFSAC supports the goals and objectives of Air Force Materiel Command (AFMC) as the center of expertise for Security Assistance/Foreign Military Sales (FMS), and also provides headquarters support for command international activities.

1.1. AFSAC administers international agreements that provide defense articles and services for, and facilitates armament cooperation with, friendly foreign forces in furtherance of US national security.

1.2. AFSAC acts as the AFMC point of contact for information on countries under sanction, manages suspended program assets, and provides support to the Department of State in litigation of claims.

2. Command. AFSAC, Wright-Patterson AFB, Ohio, is a direct reporting unit of AFMC.

3. Organization Structure. The organization structure of AFSAC is in accordance with the Air Force Blueprint, AFI 38-101, Air Force Organization, and HQ USAF-approved variances to the structures. The approved Blueprint organization structure for AFSAC is at <https://wpafb.af.mil/organizations/HQ-AFMC/XP/XPM/xpmo/index.htm>.

3.1. Organization Changes. Requests to change the organizational structure of AFSAC must be made in accordance with AFI 38-101 and HQ AFMC/XP policy guidance. Requests must be approved by the AFSAC commander and submitted to HQ AFMC/XP for staffing and approval.

4. Relationship to Other Units or Agencies. AFSAC is authorized direct communication with HQ USAF and Secretary of the Air Force (SAF) organizations, other major command, military departments, and government agencies.
